Onion Street Celebration Warms Our Souls

Imagine the first fallen snow of the season, fire pits glowing with warmth firelight, sipping hot chocolate and eating cookies with family and friends, Santa and his friends greeting the little children in our community and songs of the season sung from our very own West Bountiful Youth Choir and talented singer Alan Marsden. A special flick of the switch from one of West Bountiful City's oldest residents Jane Page created magic in the air as the City Building and Courtyard lit up with hundreds of lights.

What more could a city ask for to usher in one the most look-forward-to times of the year? City officials and volunteers are working hard to provide special traditions for our city. Your support is greatly appreciated.

As we look forward to a new year, there will be more events planned to create the feel of a small town celebration. In these times of economic distress there is still many things to look forward to and be thankful for. Please offer your support to these events by either volunteering to help or coming to participate. You make a difference!
